

Kings of Prohibition

TEMPRANILLO

REGION Hilltops, NSW

VINEYARD

Under the cover of darkness premium grapes from the Hilltops region meet, delivering intense characters that can also be charmingly smooth and complex.

TASTING NOTE

Kings of Prohibition Tempranillo is bootlegger complex, yet seductive with fruit flavours that are held together with fine velvety tannins.

SUGGESTED CUISINE

American smoked Wagyu and beef sliders.

KINGS OF PROHIBITION

From the great era of the roaring twenties, prohibition gave rise to the infamous 'Kings of Prohibition'. During this dry period myths were born and the stories of bootleggers; such as Bugsy Siegel became legend and set the path for wine distribution around the world.

WINE ANALYSIS

Alc/Vol: 14.0% | pH: 3.6 | ta: 6.2g/L

CELLARING Delicious crinking now but will cellar well over 2 years.

